

GTCU Exclaimer

Volume 5

Issue: May 2010

From the President

Dr. Thomas L. Dozier

It's that time of year again that we celebrate collectively reflecting on how far God has brought us and looking forward to what God will continue to do. We've had the opportunity to welcome new students and continue our relationship with seasoned ministers. Thank you for the privilege to be a part of your spiritual growth and development.

This year many have partnered with us in pledging to support the school. We are indeed grateful for the commitment and pray God's continued blessing upon our partners. We encourage you to allow the blessings of partnership to overtake you in becoming a financial supporter of GTCU.

As a final thought, be cognizant of your remaining requirements. I challenge each of you to walk in integrity and excellence for which God has called you by doing all as unto the Lord.

Graduation Requirements

Graduation is fast approaching and we are elated with the blessings of God in another year of impartation. Our Spirit filled graduation ceremony will be encouraging, celebratory and enlightening for all who attend. Don't leave anyone out! Invite your family, church members, friends, co-workers and neighbors. All are welcome to share in the celebration of commitment to studying the Word.

An unofficial transcript was given out last week to insure the accuracy of your records. Please take the time to review it and direct all questions to the Registrar.

Students intending to receive a degree must submit the Course Tracking & Intent to Graduate Form along with the Ministry Practicum Activity Log to the Registrar immediately.
